CORAM: DR. D.Y. CHANDRACHUD, J.
24th August, 2006.

P.C. :

On 13th July, 2006 this Court had directed the Plaintiff to adduce evidence in support of the case and file the original documents and it was recorded that considering the nature of the suit, the Court did not consider it appropriate to pass a decree under Order 8 Rule10 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Counsel appearing for the Plaintiff states that letters dated 14th July, 2006 and 27th July, 2006 have been addressed to the Plaintiff by the advocates, copies of which have been placed on the record. Despite this, it has been stated that no instructions are forthcoming. The only inference in the circumstances is that the Plaintiff is not interested in pursuing the proceedings any further. The suit is accordingly dismissed for want of prosecution.
